No more disparate systems or unnecessary manual administration. ClearConnect can process order data requiring no re-keying or importing of external data.

ClearConnect is a true online system with all transactions placed over the internet being updated immediately into AusVantage. Any and all changes that occur within the AusVantage database, such as inventory prices changes, are also immediately reflected within your website, providing your customers with updated information as it occurs.

Web Aesthetics

Today, customers demand a personalised online shopping experience. ClearConnect provides Web store capabilities that help virtually any business to create a dynamic and personalised online store.

Uniware's web development company - Xceed Pty Ltd, can help you create that polished web site, elevating online branding and optimising SEO Integration without using costly IT resources.

Advanced Customisation

Advanced customisation, with simpler web management tools allowing you to tailor online business practices to meet your specific company and customer requirements. Now you can have the best of both worlds; a complete Web store that integrates directly to your accounting ERP system and an e-Commerce solution with custom tailored functions to fit your business processes.
